1980 Outlook

Michigan moves into its second century of intercollegiate football and seldom have the challenges been more pronounced than they are for the 1980 season. Coach Bo Schembechler and his staff have the following priorities:

•Rebuild a defense that lost seven starters, including two All-Americans.

•Improve the kicking game in every phase from the center snap to blocking.

•Develop the quarterback position.

Schembechler is concerned with the defense, which is inexperienced. Depth at tackle and linebacker are the essential problems.

While Michigan's kicking game was less than spectacular in 1979, the results were compounded by the success of the opposition which converted on 8 of 15 field goal attempts. The Wolverines will have a new punter and field goal kicker this season.

Michigan operated with just one healthy quarterback in spring drills, prompting Bo to predict, "Our freshmen quarterbacks could be a factor in our plans this fall."

Here is the position sketch:

QUARTERBACKS

Soph Rich Hewlett is No. 1, but record-setting John Wangler (knee surgery) will try to come back. Freshman trio of Steve Smith, Dave Hall and Greg Powell will be given careful study.

RUNNING BACKS

Butch Woolfolk, Stan Edwards, Lawrence Ricks all tailback-types with Edwards and Ricks also working at fullback. Jerald Ingram could help at FB. No experience beyond these four runners.

RECEIVERS

Anthony Carter, who seems to play in his own, somewhat elevated league, leads impressive corps of Rodney Feaster, Alan Mitchell, Zeke Wallace, Kenney Gear. Norm Betts tops thin TE group.

Position Sketch

OFFENSIVE LINE

Strongest aspect of team with giants Ed Muransky, Bubba Paris, Kurt Becker and Tony Osbun, plus returning regular John Powers and pre-season All-American center George Lilja.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Only Mel Owens (OLB) and Mike Trgovac return as starters, but Dave Nicolau (DT) is experienced. Mike's now at DT, so MG is open. Sophomores and juniors have good chance to play extensively.

LINEBACKERS

Andy (leading tackler) Cannavino shifts from wide to shortside of field and soph Paul Girgash takes Andy's spot. Backup positions are open and depth must be developed.

SECONDARY

Stu Harris underwent knee surgery in spring, but is expected back at strong safety. Parttime starter Gerald Diggs, promising soph Keith Bostic and highly-regarded Brian Carpenter along with Jeff Reeves, who started in place of Harris a few games in '79, round out secondary.

KEY NEWCOMERS

Paul Girgash (ILB)—Strong, quick, lettered as freshman. Could be outstanding.

Keith Bostic (FS)—Won top freshman award, has ability of a Thom Darden, Dave Brown, Randy Logan-type defender.

Bo's Comments on Key Wolverines

KURT BECKER, OG..."Outstanding player, great speed, size and leverage. Best pulling guard we've had at Michigan in a long time. Improves every step in his career."

ANDY CANNAVINO, LB..."Has developed into a fine linebacker. Smart, able to diagnose plays well, fine tackler. Will call our defensive signals and lead the defense."

STAN EDWARDS, RB..."Excellent speed, fine cut runner and breakaway threat. Solid pass receiver, good hands."

GEORGE LILJA, C...."Tremendous dedication and a superbly conditioned athlete, big and strong. Rates with the great centers we've had at Michigan."

JOHN POWERS, OG...."Has come back from knee surgery. Practiced 20 days in spring without a problem. He'll have a great senior season."

MIKE TRGOVAC, DT...."Tough, hard-nosed competitor with excellent quickness. Moves from guard to tackle and will do the job and provide leadership."

BUTCH WOOLFOLK, TB...."Strong, powerful runner with great speed. Should continue to improve as he has from his freshman to sophomore season."

Brian Carpenter (DB)—Goes into Fall as a starter, quick, determined, only needs experience.
Lawrence Ricks (B)—Impressive in spring working as TB-FB. Definitely will play and help running attack.
Rich Hewlett (QB)—No. 1 quarterback, started Ohio State game. Excellent runner, leader, developing fast as a passer.
Jerald Ingram (FB)—True fullback who is progressing and has a shot at starting.

Meet Bo Schembechler

"Most of our experience will be on offense, especially in the line which could be as good as any we've had in 12 seasons. We have only four regulars returning on defense, but I like the enthusiasm and aggressiveness of our young players and I think this defense will give a good account of itself."

Bo's Goal: Win the Close Ones

A Michigan team under Bo Schembechler had never lost three games in a regular-season until last year, but that 1979 record may be misleading. Bo did not see it as a collapse, an end to an era or a changing of the guard in the Big Ten.

"We had a good team, but you have to realize there are hundreds of good coaches out there doing everything they can to build a winner. And a lot of those coaches are in the Big Ten."

Michigan lost three games plus the Gator Bowl by a total of 10 points. "Our goal for 1980 is to win the close ones," adds Schembechler.

Schembechler's 11 previous teams at Michigan have won most of the close ones. His record for 12 seasons is 104-19-3 and seven of those defeats have come in just two seasons—1969 and 1979. His teams have lost only two non-conference games during regular season, again in 1969 (Missouri) and 1979 (Notre Dame). The loss to Notre Dame came on four field goals by the Irish, 12-10, and previewed what was to be a year when kicking the football played a pivotal role for the Wolverines.

During the 1970s, however, Michigan posted the finest regular-season record in the nation, 96-10-3. Schembechler has guided the Wolverines to eight Big Ten titles, five Rose Bowl games and appearances in the Orange and Gator Bowls. His teams were rated in the Top Ten for 10 straight seasons and produced 23 All-American players.

Schembechler (pronounced SHEM-beck-lur) is just the 14th coach in the history of Michigan football. He came from Miami of Ohio in 1969, replacing Bump Elliott, who had resigned to become Michigan's first associate athletic director.

Schembechler has been voted Coach of the Year nationally (1969) as well as in the Mid-American (1965) and Big Ten (1972) conferences. Nine of his assistants have been appointed head football coaches at major institutions. Bo presently is a member of the Board of Trustees of the American Football Coaches' Association.

The former Barberton, Ohio, prep football all-stater was an offensive tackle at Miami for three years. He played under George Blackburn and Woody Hayes and also was a fine lefthanded pitcher for Miami.

He graduated in 1951 and received a master's degree in 1952 at Ohio State where he served as a graduate assistant coach. After serving in the U.S. Army, he was a line coach at Presbyterian College in 1954, a line coach at Bowling Green in 1955, then joined Ara Parseghian's staff at Northwestern in 1958. He was appointed head football coach at Miami of Ohio in 1963.

Schembechler confines most of his non-football hours to his family and charity events, including the cancer society and the Mott Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor fund-raising projects.

Schembechler annually conducts a coaching clinic for high school coaches that is regarded as one of the most informative such events in the nation. He also attends a series of alumni gatherings during the summer. Schembechler is featured in a weekly television show in Detroit and on a state network.

Bo and his wife, Millie, have four children: Chip, Geoff, Matt and Shemy.

The Staff

Michigan's Assistant Coaches

Jerry Hanlon (HAN-lun)
Offensive Line

Jerry Hanlon coaches Michigan's offensive line. Hanlon, from North Bend, Ohio, was an offensive halfback during the 1953-55 seasons at Miami. He played halfback on the Redskin teams that won two Mid-American Conference titles. His college coach was Ara Parseghian.

As a player, Hanlon's college teams achieved a 24-2-1 record, while his teams at Taylor High School were 25-7-1.

Following graduation from Miami, Hanlon returned to Taylor for a year as assistant football coach, then coached at Canton Catholic, Youngstown and Cleveland St. Edwards before joining the staff at the University of Dayton in 1964. The following year he joined Schembechler at Miami.

He has been in charge of Michigan's offensive line since 1969. Those lines have keyed an assault on most team rushing records. Seven All-American linemen have been developed under Hanlon in seven seasons. Last spring Jerry was made an honorary "M" Club member.

Hanlon is married to the former Anne Hatfield, a native of Norma, Tennessee. The couple has two sons, Scott and Mickey, and a daughter, Kelly Ann.

JERRY HANLON

"Experience and depth are allies for successful line play, but we must improve over last year to be effective in moving the football."

Paul Schudel (Shu-DEL)
Offensive Interior Line

Paul Schudel, a former player and graduate assistant at Miami of Ohio under Bo Schembechler, rejoined his former boss in 1975 as a member of the Michigan football staff.

Schudel developed two All-American linemen in 1977, center Walt Downing and guard Mark Donahue, who repeated his '76 selection.

Schudel served as offensive line coach at Syracuse during 1974 for former Michigan assistant Frank Maloney. Prior to that, Schudel spent two years as offensive line coach and offensive coordinator at William and Mary, two years as offensive line coach at Colorado State, two years in the same duties at New Hampshire and two years as a graduate assistant at Miami.

Schudel graduated from Swanton (Ohio) High in 1962 after earning 11 letters. He played three years as offensive tackle for Schembechler at Miami and was tri-captain his senior year and earned Academic All-American honors. Schudel graduated in 1966 with a Bachelor of Science Degree with a major in mathematics and received his masters degree in education from Miami in 1968.

Schudel is married to the former Mary Burkhart of Perrysburg, Ohio. They have two children, Jennifer and Glenn.

PAUL SCHUDEL

"There is more experience in our interior line this year and this should give us more quality than we've had in recent years."

Tirrel Burton
Offensive Backfield

Tirrel Burton, who has produced several outstanding pass receivers, including Bo Rather, Paul Seal and All-American, Jim Smith, is the backfield coach.

Burton, who joined the Wolverines staff in 1970 as freshman coach and took over the receivers in 1972, enjoyed a long and successful career at Miami of Ohio, both as a player and coach. He even played high school football at Oxford.

Burton was an outstanding halfback at Miami, twice being named All-Mid-American Conference. He averaged 8.8 yards per carry and scored 84 points his senior year, both records. Burton also starred in track, winning his way to the NCAA 220 hurdle finals in 1955. He was elected to Miami's Sports Hall of Fame for both football and track.

Burton graduated from Miami in 1956, played a year of pro ball with the Ottawa Rough Riders, then taught and coached in Cincinnati on the junior and senior high levels for nine years. He was offensive and defensive backfield coach at Central State of Ohio for a year before returning as an assistant coach to Miami of Ohio where he completed his master's degree.

Burton and his wife, Sue, have two children; Ellen and Mark.

TIRREL BURTON

"We have virtually the same people we had a year ago and they should be better. Some of our backs may play more than one position."

Gary Moeller
Quarterbacks

Gary Moeller returns to Michigan where he spent eight seasons building one of the finest defensive units in college football. He served three years (1977-78-79) as head coach at Illinois where he made great strides in rebuilding the Illini with strong recruiting efforts. His '79 Illini team won two, tied one and lost three by a touchdown or less as a series of key injuries struck.

An outstanding lineman at Lima High in Ohio, Moeller went on to earn three letters as a center and linebacker at Ohio State, and captained the Bucks' 1962 championship team. Moeller, who taught at Union High in Grand Rapids, coached Bellefontaine High to two straight titles in Ohio. He joined Bo Schembechler's staff at Miami of Ohio in 1967 and moved to Michigan with Bo in 1969, serving as defensive end coach until 1973 when he became defensive coordinator. Moeller took on added responsibilities during the spring of 1976 when Schembechler was absent from practice. He was appointed head coach at Illinois following the '76 season, but remained with the Wolverines through the Rose Bowl game.

Moeller married the former Ann Morrison of Lima and they have four children: Susie, Amy, Andy and Molly.

GARY MOELLER

"The quarterback situation is rather unsettled, but we have talent there and foresee no major problems."

Bob Thornbladh (THORN-blade)
Receivers

Bob Thornbladh of Plymouth has coached both the offense and defense. He joined the staff in 1975 as a graduate assistant following a year of playing professional football with the Kansas City Chiefs. He played four years of football for Bo Schembechler, including three years as a letterwinner (1971-73). He gained 677 yards rushing, losing only two yards in 163 carried as a fullback on Wolverine teams that compiled a 31-1-1 regular season record. Bob, a political science major, graduated from LS&A School in 1974. He's an avid jogger. Bob married the former Christine DeCorte. They have a son, Justin, and daughter, Molly.

BOB THORNBLADH

"There's depth among our receivers. They have experience and should be a positive factor for us this season."

Lloyd Carr
Defensive Backs

Lloyd Carr joins the Michigan football staff with strong ties to the state. A three-sport athlete at Riverview High where he earned all-state honors in football, he served as assistant coach at Nativity High in Detroit and Belleville High from 1968 through 1973. He led John Glenn High to several successful seasons, earning the '75 Regional Class A Coach of the Year Award for an 8-1 season.

Carr also coached at Eastern Michigan for two seasons before joining Gary Moeller's staff at Illinois in 1978.

Carr attended the University of Missouri, where he played football, but transferred to Northern Michigan and quarterbacked the Wildcats to an undefeated season. He graduated in 1968, earned his Masters' from Northern Michigan in 1970 under a Mott Fellowship, and joined the Green Bay Packers. A Riverview Community School Board member for six years, Carr married the former Karen Manning of Riverview. They have three children: Melissa, Jason and Emily.

LLOYD CARR

"We will be relatively young and inexperienced, but it's a unit with good ability and great enthusiasm that will improve during the season."

Bill McCartney
Defensive Coordinator

Bill McCartney, who coached Dearborn Divine Child to state championships in football and basketball, joined the Michigan staff as defensive end coach in 1974.

McCartney, served as defensive end coach for three years and became defensive coordinator in 1977 replacing Gary Moeller. He also coaches inside linebackers.

McCartney earned 11 letters at Riverview High School where he captained the football and basketball squads and played baseball. He was a three-year letterman as a linebacker at Missouri, playing in two Orange Bowl games, and was named second team All-Big Eight.

At Divine Child, McCartney compiled a 30-5 won-loss record in four years as head football coach. His teams won three Detroit Catholic League Championships and two state titles (1971, 1973). His basketball teams at Holy Redeemer and Divine Child were 157-49, winning the Detroit Catholic title in 1969 and the state Class B title in 1973.

McCartney, who is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and his wife, Lynne, have three boys, Michael, Thomas, Mark, and a girl, Kristyn.

BILL McCARTNEY

"Our linebackers are small in physical stature, but each is tough and competitive. We will look for continual improvement from them during the fall."

Milan Vooletich (VULE-la-tich)
Outside Linebackers

Milan Vooletich, starting his second season at Michigan, coaches the outside linebackers. Last year he coached the interior line. He coached the defensive backs at the University of Colorado.

Vooletich had coached at Colorado since 1974 as the Buffalos compiled a 29-14-1 record. In addition to his four years there with Bill Mallory, Vooletich coached the linebackers at Miami of Ohio from 1969-73, also under Mallory. Vooletich joined the college ranks after coaching football and track at Sandusky (Ohio) High School from 1964-69. Among his players were Wolverine graduates Thom Darden, Bo Rather, Brian Healy and Werner Hall.

Milan has a private pilot's license. He likes to ski and is an avid reader.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., where he attended Carrick High School, Vooletich played offensive and defensive back at Geneva College in addition to being captain of the track team. Vooletich graduated in 1964 and was President of the Varsity Club. Vooletich and his wife, Rosemary, have two sons, Daniel and Brian.

MILAN VOOLETICH

"With just one returning letterman, we're in a year of transition. We will be young and with youth you have unbounded enthusiasm. We expect them to progress."

TIM DAVIS

Tim Davis
Defensive Line

Tim Davis, a three-year defensive standout at Michigan from 1973 through 1975, returns to the Wolverines after a two-year coaching stint at Miami of Ohio under former Michigan assistant coach Tom Reed.

Davis, a consensus All-Big Ten middle guard in 1974 and 1975 and second team ('75) All-American (AP and UPI), had 254 tackles during his career, including 29 for 141 yards in losses, fifth best in modern Michigan history. He played on Michigan teams that compiled a 28-3-3 record.

The Warren, Ohio, native served as a graduate assistant coach at Michigan for two seasons before going to Miami where he coached the defensive line. Davis is not married.

JERRY METER

Jerry Meter
Assistant Defensive Coach

Jerry Meter begins his second season on the 'M' staff after a brilliant football career at Michigan. He was co-captain of the 1978 Big Ten Championship team and second team All-Big Ten linebacker. Meter won the 1977 Matthaei Award which goes annually to the junior who excels on the athletic field and in the classroom. He made the Dean's list in 1975.

Meter was an all-state football player at Bloomfield Hills Andover after earning nine letters in three sports at Saginaw Douglas MacArthur. During three seasons at Michigan he made 273 tackles. He was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings and was a late cut. He joined the staff as a graduate assistant in 1979. Meter is not married.

LES MILES

Les Miles
Assistant Offensive Coach

Les Miles, two-year letterwinner as an offensive guard at Michigan, begins his second season on the Wolverine staff. An all-state football player and a wrestling champion at Elyria High in Ohio, Miles was a member of the 1976 Orange Bowl team. He majored in economics, graduating in 1976, then went into private business before entering coaching. Miles is not married.

Ron Vanderlinden
Assistant Defensive Coach

Ron Vanderlinden, former all-league center at Albion College, begins his second season on the Michigan staff. Former Dearborn Divine Child two-sport star, Vanderlinden was a four-year starter at Albion and also played baseball. He studied and coached at Bowling Green for one year before coming to Michigan. Vanderlinden is not married.

RON VANDERLINDEN

Fritz Seyferth
Recruiting Coordinator

Fritz, a former Michigan fullback (1968-71), is in charge of coordinating all recruiting efforts for the athletic staff. He was honorable mention All-Big Ten in 1970 and supplied the key block on Billy Taylor's touchdown run in the 1971 win over Ohio State that capped an undefeated, untied season. Gained 529 yards rushing in his career.

Fritz, who has a degree in industrial engineering from Michigan, was drafted by the N.Y. Giants and played for the Calgary Stampeders before joining B.F. Goodrich Co. as an internal consultant. He worked for Arthur Young & Co. as a management consultant before joining the athletic department. He married the former Lynn Groves of Ann Arbor and they have three children, Sean, Courtney and Nicholas.

FRITZ SEYFERTH

Mike Gittleson
Weight & Conditioning

Mike, a physical education major from Plymouth State College (NH), is in charge of Michigan's comprehensive strength and conditioning program. He lettered in football, wrestling and track. At Michigan he won the Paul Hunsicker Award for academics and extra-curricular activities while working on his master's degree in exercise science.

Mike has competed as a power lifter, coached soccer at Ashland High in N.H., and was named the outstanding senior in physical education at Plymouth State. A Vietnam veteran, he married the former Carolyn Poznanski of Manchester, N.H. They have a son, Matthew.

Of Colors, Song And Michigan

Michigan's athletic traditions date back more than a century ago. Students, as early as 1861, referred to themselves as Wolverines, and, of course, Michigan is known as the Wolverine state. The graduating class of 1867 selected Maize and Blue as the school colors. Michigan's famed fight song, "The Victors", was written in 1898 by Louis Elbel to commemorate a last-second, 12-11 victory over Chicago that produced the Wolverines' first Western Conference football championship. In 1903 a five-gallon jug used for drinking water was left in Minnesota and six years later the Gophers and Wolverines played a football game that became known as the battle for the "Little Brown Jug." When Coach Fritz Crisler arrived at Michigan in 1938 he wanted to "dress up the plain, black football helmet" used at that time. The result was the distinctive winged-helmet still used by today's Wolverines.

Michigan moved into its Centennial Year of football with a convincing win over Northwestern as Stan Edwards came back after sitting out a year with an ankle injury, a new offensive lineup was offered and freshman sensation Anthony Carter became an immediate success. Edwards gained 99 yards, B.J. Dickey, taking over for Rick Leach, ran for 85 yards and passed for 68 yards and one TD, while Carter returned a punt 78 yards for a TD, caught 2 passes and returned 5 kicks.

Butch Woolfolk, a sophomore, gained 50 yards and Lawrence Reid added 52 from the fullback spot. Ralph Clayton at wingback was the only returning offensive starter from the Rose Bowl team. John Wangler took over for Dickey and completed 5 of 6 passes for 67 yards and a TD.

Curtis Greer led the defense with 10 tackles. Mike Trgovac, playing a strong overall game, was voted Defensive Champion of the Game, while center George Lilja was named Offensive Champion. Nine freshmen played in this opener for Michigan.

Michigan's defense held Notre Dame to just 179 yards in total offense and without a touchdown, but the Wolverines fell victim to four field goals by Chuck Male in losing a two-point decision. The Wolverines had a 10-6 halftime lead, but two third-period FGs of 22 and 39 yards rallied the Irish. B.J. Dickey guided 'M' until late in the third period, when John Wangler took over on the Wolverines' 42 and moved them to the 20, but on a key third-and-eight, Stan Edwards was hit for a five-yard loss and Bryan Virgil's 32-yard field goal was blocked with 7 seconds left in the game.

Edwards, who scored 'M's' only TD, rushed for 72 yards, caught 3 passes for 46 yards and was voted Chevrolet's Offensive Player of the Game for this ABC-TV regional telecast. Andy Cannavino played his finest game as a Wolverine, making 17 tackles and earning the coaches' Defensive Player of the Game award.

Doug Marsh, who caught 4 passes in the opener, caught 4 more to establish himself as an outstanding tight end. Owens and Jolly each intercepted a pass, while Curtis Greer recovered a fumble and had 4 tackles for losses.

Ron Simpkins became the career leader in tackles as he passed Calvin O'Neal's 377 with 12 tackles, moving the senior linebacker to a record 389.

'M' faced a tough Kansas team, but managed to score a TD in each quarter to win. Stan Edwards, who gained 106 yards and caught two passes, scored twice on short runs, while Lawrence Reid capped a 60-yard drive with a yard plunge and Doug Marsh grabbed an 8-yard pass from John Wangler for the final TD. Michigan, in fact, threw 23 times, completing 15 for 220 yards as the running game was not overpowering. Two pass interceptions and two lost fumbles thwarted the Michigan offense.

Kansas managed only 104 yards in total offense, but Leroy Irvin's 60-yard punt return, the second longest since Bo Schembechler has been coaching Michigan teams, kept the game close.

Curtis Greer had four more tackles for losses totaling 21 yards and Chris Godfrey had two sacks worth 20 yards as Michigan's defense again proved solid, limiting Kansas of the Big Eight to just 2 yards per play. Greer was named Defensive Champion of the Game, while center George Lilja for the second time in three games was named Offensive Champion.

Michigan's defense checked California with a minus 14 yards rushing and held Rich Campbell to 164 yards passing in a come-from-behind win at Berkeley. The Cal QB did fire a 17-yard TD pass in the first period and a field goal put Michigan behind 10-0 at halftime. A fumble recovered by Mike Harden on the second half kickoff allowed Stan Edwards to score on the next play to put Michigan back in the game.

'M' drove 77 yards later to score, helped considerably on a second-and-24 situation by John Wangler's 38 yard pass to Doug Marsh and Norm Betts' catch of a deflected pass at the Cal 4. Marsh and Wangler teamed up on a similar situation in the fourth period, third down and 23, this completion going for 58 yards. That drive ended with one of five missed 'M' field goal kicks.

Butch Woolfolk rushed for 76 yards and Edwards added 67, while Wangler hit on 9 of 21 passes for 210 yards as a replacement for B.J. Dickey, who was unable to practice Friday because of the flu and missed the game. Harden, who recovered two fumbles and broke up a pair of passes, was named Michigan's Defensive Player of the Game and as the UPI's Midwest Defensive Player of the Week. Marsh, who caught three passes for 121 yards was the Offensive Champion.

MSU	0	0	7	0	7

Michigan avenged a 1978 loss to MSU in a heavy-hitting game carried by ABC-TV for a national audience. It featured the Wolverine defense, a pair of touchdown passes by B.J. Dickey and some strong running by Stan Edwards, who gained 139 yards in 24 carries.

Edwards, named for the second time this season as Chevrolet's scholarship winner as well as AP's Big Ten Back of the Week, provided a key fourth down run deep in Michigan's territory, a twisting, driving four-yard effort. Two plays later Dickey lofted a 66-yard scoring pass to Ralph Clayton to give 'M' a 14-7 lead. Dickey teamed with Anthony Carter on a 6-yard pass for a fourth-period TD, the play borrowed from a California play that stung 'M' for a TD the previous week.

Michigan scored first on a two-yard run by Butch Woolfolk, but MSU tied it in the third period before 'M' closed out the scoring with the two TD passes. Dickey, returning to action after missing the Cal game, threw for 147 yards while the 'M' ground game netted 219. Ron Simpkins, with 10 tackles, became the first 'M' player to total more than 400 in a career. Stu Harris and Mike Harden intercepted passes, while Mel Owens, who recovered a fumble and made 11 tackles, was named Defensive Player of the Game.

Butch Woolfolk, making the most of his opportunities against Minnesota for the second straight season, exploded for 194 yards rushing, caught two passes for 12 yards and scored two TDs to lift 'M' past the Gophers. He was named by both AP and UPI as Midwest Back of the Week. Woolfolk took over for Stan Edwards, who suffered a thigh bruise late in the first period, and on his first running play the speedy sophomore sprinted 41 yards for a TD. A year ago he was given the starting call and responded with 131 yards rushing.

Lawrence Reid gained 179 yards, caught 4 passes for 31 yards and scored twice as 'M' rushed for 456 yards.

Mark Carlson set Michigan Stadium records for most passes attempted (51), completed (27) and yards (339), but two interceptions by Mike Jolly and one by defensive tackle Curtis Greer thwarted the Gophers' bid for an upset. Jolly was named 'M's' Defensive Champion, while Greer contributed a pass deflection and a sack. Andy Cannavino turned in another strong defensive game. Offensive tackle, Bubba Paris who returned to action last week against MSU, played most of the game, but John Powers, who also saw action a week ago, did not play and was to be sidelined for the season.

Michigan's defense continued to play impressive football as it checked a young Illini team with 297 yards in total offense, but the offense had problems in the first half before scoring twice in the third period to break a scoreless tie. Mike Jolly's fourth interception, his third in two games, put 'M' in motion for its first score, a yard run by Butch Woolfolk on a fourth down play.

A 21-yard punt gave 'M' position on the Illini 37 and six plays later B.J. Dickey fired a look-in pass to Anthony Carter for the TD. Woolfolk scored on runs of 30 yards and one yard before Illinois drove for its only score late in the game.

Ron Simpkins made 10 tackles, including 3 for 27 yards in losses, to earn the Defensive Player of the Game award, while Curtis Greer continued his 'big play' performance with a blocked punt and three sacks. Woolfolk for the second straight game, was named Offensive Champion. He gained 78 yards and Stan Edwards rushed for 81 yards.

In the 100 seasons Michigan has played football, no ending to a game offered the excitement and improbability of the victory over Indiana. When Indiana scored to tie the game at 21-21, there were just 55 seconds left and after the kickoff just 51 seconds with 'M' on the Wolverine 22. John Wangler, taking over for an injured B.J. Dickey, passed for 7 yards to Butch Woolfolk. Woolfolk ran twice for 6 yards and a first down on the 'M' 35 with 25 seconds left. Three plays later Wangler passed to Lawrence Reid, who was hit at midfield and the ball went flying out of bounds to stop the clock on a controversial play. A penalty moved 'M' to the Indiana 45 with 6 seconds left.

With one play left, Wangler fired a pass to Anthony Carter cutting toward the middle. The freshman speedster broke a tackle, another Hoosier missed him, a third had a shot at him. He stumbled, regained his footing and scored with no time left in the game. Fans jammed the field and the extra point was never attempted.

Carter and Wangler were Offensive Co-champions, but Woolfolk gained 127 yards and Lawrence Reid had 99. Stan Edwards, who suffered an ankle sprain against Illinois, did not play. Michigan returned 34 of its All-Americans for this Homecoming Game.

Michigan's 'big play' team produced another against Wisconsin, this one breaking a 39-year old record of Tom Harmon. It came on a third down and seven at the Michigan 8 when Butch Woolfolk took a deep pitch at the goal line, broke over left tackle, then cut back and raced 92 yards for the touchdown. Harmon in 1940 had sprinted 86 yards against California. It was Woolfolk's third TD run of the game, the others covering one and 30 yards. He rushed for 190 yards.

Despite this, Doug Marsh was named Offensive Champion as the big tight end grabbed 3 passes for 110 yards, including a 71-yarder from John Wangler for a TD. That gave him 23 catches for 487 yards and, as usual, Marsh was a key blocker all afternoon.

Freshman Mike Cade broke off a 61 yard run, while another freshman, Rich Hewlett, made his debut at quarterback, running for 50 yards and missing on two passes.

Ron Simpkins, Curtis Greer and Mel Owens (voted Defensive Champion) led the defense which checked the Badgers with 247 yards in total offense and provided 'M' with its first shutout of the season. B.J. Dickey and Stan Edwards both missed the game.

With 10 minutes left in the game, Michigan found itself trailing Purdue 24-6. A 36-yard kickoff return by Anthony Carter and Butch Woolfolk's 37-yard run helped set up Roosevelt Smith's yard touchdown plunge. Curtis Greer's fumble recovery gave 'M' a quick break and the Wolverines moved quickly to score on a two-yard run by Woolfolk with 5:34 left.

Michigan took possession again as Andy Cannavino intercepted a Mark Herrmann pass, but on fourth and one at Purdue's two, John Wangler on an option play lost eight yards. Purdue took an intentional safety to make it 24-21 and Michigan took the kick and started from its own 46 with less than a minute to play. A final pass play to Anthony Carter failed to click with 11 seconds left.

Woolfolk for the fourth time in five games went over the 100 mark rushing, while Marsh caught six passes for 70 yards, but the entire offensive output was just 258 yards. Purdue with Herrmann passing for 140 had 268 yards in total offense. Ron Simpkins made 22 tackles to lead the Michigan defense, but Curtis Greer, who had not practiced all week due to injuries in the Wisconsin game (ankle and knee), came into the game in the first period and was outstanding with 12 tackles.

OSU	0	6	6	6	18
'M'	0	7	8	0	15

Just when Michigan appeared to have its fourth straight Big Ten championship in hand, Ohio State got to the Wolverines' foot and spoiled everything. When the fourth period opened, Michigan was driving from its nine to a first down on the 36. Three plays produced two yards and on fourth down OSU's Jim Laughlin broke through to block Bryan Virgil's punt and Todd Bell picked up the ball on the 18 and ran in for the touchdown that provided an 18-15 victory and the Big Ten title for first-year coach Earle Bruce.

Until that time Michigan had used a John Wangler-to-Anthony Carter TD pass (59 yards) and an 80-yard drive with Roosevelt Smith scoring from the one (then running for two points) to overcome two field goals and a tipped (by Mike Jolly) Art Schlichter pass for a touchdown. All this through three periods.

It was the annual OSU-M showdown with the Rose Bowl on the line for 'M' if Purdue lost. Purdue defeated Indiana, so the game actually determined whether OSU would share or win the title outright. It was only the third time in Bo Schembechler's 11 years at Michigan the Wolverines did not claim at least a share of the title and the first time in four years they did not go to the Rose Bowl, ending up, instead, in the Gator Bowl against North Carolina.

Schembechler, pulling out all the stops, started freshman quarterback Rich Hewlett in order to establish option football and even called a fourth-down pass from punt formation.

It was a tough, hard-hitting game played before an NCAA record 106,255 fans and a national ABC-TV hookup with temperatures in the 60s. It was Michigan's 29th straight crowd of 100,000 or more.

Quarterback John Wangler opened the Gator Bowl with a 47-yard pass completion to Anthony Carter, but 20 yards in penalties took 'M' out of field goal range and that was a tipoff of events to come. Bryan Virgil did boot a 20-yard FG early in the second period and Wangler, hitting receivers at will, threw 53 yards to Carter for a 9-0 lead. On the next series Wangler was tackled on a sprint out, suffering a severe knee injury. He had passed for 204 yards at that point. N.C. then drove for a TD to make it 9-7 at halftime.

Midway through the third period N.C., behind the running of Amos Lawrence drove 97 yards in 15 plays to score. A field goal with 7:31 left in the game made it 17-9 for N.C. before B.J. Dickey tossed 30 yards to Carter for a TD with 1:28 left but Dickey's two-point conversion pass to Carter failed. Carter's four receptions netted 141 yards. Two lost fumbles, two pass interceptions and 87 yards in penalties thwarted 'M's' offense.

The University

Academically, Michigan ranks among the foremost universities in America. A survey of professional school deans not long ago rated U-M in the top 10 in 13 of the 18 professional areas surveyed, "the best overall record" in the words of The Los Angeles Times. The survey found "Five universities with outstanding reputations—Berkeley, Chicago, Columbia, Harvard and Michigan—have the greatest numbers of top-ranking professional schools."

Other recent surveys have found the following: 4,000 faculty members nationally ranked U-M among the top four universities; the College of Engineering was first for graduate level academics in three of seven fields surveyed; deans of business administration schools placed the employment value of a U-M M.B.A. degree among the top five and rated Michigan's executive programs among the top four; more top business executives earned degrees from U-M than from any other public college or university; and medical school faculty members ranked U-M among the top eight such schools.

U-M students appreciate this, evidently. The majority of students in 554 classes recently rated 90 percent of their courses as "excellent." Ninety percent of the classes rated the instructor as an excellent teacher. The U-M faculty survey noted the results are quite different from the stereotype of the large, "mass education" university one hears about.

Michigan's schools and colleges cover the spectrum of human knowledge. To them for an education have come more than 253,000 degree holders, including the three-man crew of Apollo 15. Last year 24 percent of the student body came from all the other states in the nation, while another 5.3 percent were from some 100 other countries.

During 1978-79 sponsored research volume at Michigan totaled $98,571,956. Projects ranged from abstract theoretical studies of the atom to methods of reducing the number and severity of highway accidents. The monthly survey of consumer sentiment is a nationally respected barometer of the nation's economic health. Practical holography or three-dimensional photography was invented at Michigan, while the scholarly renowned Middle English Dictionary is being compiled on the campus.

On the North Campus, the Phoenix Project has for three decades sought peaceful uses of atomic energy. A few hundred feet away, the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library is being constructed to house the papers of one of Michigan's most famous alumni.

The Medical Center's 25 buildings comprise one of the largest concentrations of health care facilities in the world. The area includes one of the nation's major medical schools, the largest baccalaureate school of nursing, and the nation's first University Hospital.

Michigan's faculty includes 13 members of the National Academy of Sciences and many presidents of national scholarly organizations. The U-M library system is the fifth largest university system in the country, with more than five million volumes.

The University is truly a state resource and a national asset.

Meet Michigan's President

Harold T. Shapiro became the University of Michigan's tenth president on January 1, 1980. A professor of economics and public policy at Michigan, he is one of the nation's ablest young economists. He is known for his research and writing in economic forecasting, public policy analysis, and econometrics.

With Economics Department Chairman Saul H. Hymans, Shapiro for the past decade has directed the Research Seminar in Quantitative Economics, which produces highly respected forecasts of national and regional economic activity.

Shapiro has established a reputation as one of U-M's best classroom teachers since joining the faculty in 1964. He was a member of the University Budget Priorities Committee (1972-74) before chairing it until 1977. He also chaired the Department of Economics from 1974 to 1977. From then through 1979 he was vice-president for academic affairs and chairman of the U-M Budget Administration Committee.

For years he has had important connections with econometric model builders and forecasters throughout North America and Eastern and Western Europe. Over the last decade he has served as an economic advisor and consultant to key economic agencies of the U.S. and Canadian governments and the state of Michigan.

He has been senior research associate of the Brookings Institution, research advisor of the Bank of Canada, consultant to the U.S. Treasury, research consultant to the Economic Council of Canada, and a member of the Council of the American Statistical Association.

His bachelor's degree was earned at McGill University. M.A. and Ph.D. degrees followed at Princeton University.

Shapiro was a member of the high school swim and water polo teams and played hockey and basketball through those years in Montreal, his birthplace. President and Mrs. Shapiro and their four daughters are now American citizens.

Thomas J. Anton
Faculty Representative

Tom Anton begins his second year as Michigan's faculty representative, the third person to hold that position since Ralph Aigler first was appointed in 1915. Anton, a professor of political science, replaced Marcus Plant, Michigan's distinguished professor of law and former president of the NCAA who retired after 24 years of service.

Anton, who received his master's and Ph.D. degrees from Princeton, was a four-letter winner in both baseball and basketball at Clark University in Massachusetts and co-captain of the basketball team. A resident scientist in Michigan Institute of Public Policy Studies, Anton's major athletic endeavor now is golf.

Meet Don Canham

Don Canham continues to guide Michigan athletics on a successful road, but he is equally concerned with where that road is going during the 1980s.

"The financial problems of intercollegiate athletics grow each year and everybody in this business had better look down the road and see what's ahead," cautions Canham. "The eroding effects of inflation are especially damaging to college athletics where the prime source of revenue is the football ticket."

When Canham was named the fifth athletic director in Michigan history in 1968, he launched a major direct mail and advertising program to sell football tickets, but he also established a series of fund-raising clubs, organized parking and concessions and developed a line of specialty items (souvenirs)...all of which became major sources of revenue.

Meanwhile, Canham supervised a competitive athletic program that in 13 seasons won 41 Big Ten championships (Michigan's total is a conference record 209). Additionally, Michigan has broken NCAA attendance records for the last four years.

Physical improvements were not neglected. The latest project is a fieldhouse that will house an entire football field.

Special events have kept Michigan's facilities operating at near capacity. Canham scheduled the Slippery Rock-Shippensburg State football game in Michigan Stadium when the Wolverines were on the road. Pro-Celebrity Golf Tournament held in conjunction with Michigan Hall of Honor Night, the Michigan Golf Open, NIT basketball games and the State High School Basketball are just some of the special events held at Michigan.

During the last decade Canham has earmarked more than $5 million for plant expansion and improvements. Additionally, he was a key mover in the $7.2 million construction of new recreational sports facilities that gave Michigan one of the largest indoor complexes in the nation, some 333,000 square feet.

Other projects completed in the last decade include: construction of a sports service building, the indoor Track/Tennis building which is used for varsity and university recreational purposes; remodeling of Yost Fieldhouse into an 8,100 seat-seat ice arena; construction of an all-weather outdoor track; construction of an artificial surface practice field with lights; improvements on the baseball stadium; and a continuing renovation program for Michigan Stadium.

Building administrative and coaching staffs remains a priority. He held the first national sports clinic on promotion, marketing and athletic management in 1980. Promotions and retirements have forced complete turnovers in all but one sport, but the tradition of winning continues.

Michigan's intercollegiate program includes 22 varsity sports for men and women with an annual budget in excess of $6 million. The department is self-sufficient.

Nationally, Canham serves on various Big Ten and NCAA committees. He is invited by other universities and business groups to speak on promotion and administration. He has been elected to the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame and the U.S. Track and Field Federation Hall of Fame.

Canham was Michigan's track captain and NCAA high jump champion during his undergraduate years. He served in the Army Air Force, coached and taught at Kankakee, Ill. High School, was an assistant track coach at Michigan for two years before being named head coach in 1948. His Wolverine teams won 12 Big Ten titles in 19 years. During this time he built a highly successful sports equipment business that was placed in trust upon his appointment as athletic director.

Canham and his wife Marilyn, have a son, Don Jr., and a daughter, Clare, both University of Michigan graduates.

'M' Band

The Michigan Marching Band enters another season as one of the most active and respected bands in America. The director of the Michigan Band is Glenn A. Richter, now in his second year at the helm. Before joining the Michigan faculty last year, Richter was Director of Bands at the College Conservatory of Music at the University of Cincinnati.

This season's schedule will be another demanding one for the members of the Michigan Marching Band. Completely new pre-game and half-time shows will be performed at each of Michigan's six home games, and the band also will perform at two away games—in South Bend for the Notre Dame game, and in Columbus for the Ohio State game—with concert performances scheduled during the trips.

Another highlight of the 1980 season will be the Homecoming game, Oct. 25 with Illinois, when several hundred Michigan Band alumni will return to the Michigan Stadium gridiron for their annual "Blast from the Past."

The Michigan Band's tradition of excellence is longstanding. First organized in 1857 with a membership of fifteen musicians, the current Marching Band numbers 250. The Michigan Marching Band is the only band to have appeared at the Rose Bowl, Orange Bowl, Super Bowl and Gator Bowl games.

Through the years, the Michigan Band has always been in wide demand for concert appearances, pep rallies, and recordings, in addition to its Saturday afternoon gridiron shows. The Marching Band's best-selling album "Halftime Classics" is currently available, with proceeds going to scholarship funds.

Glenn A. Richter

In addition to Director Richter, this year's band staff will include four graduate assistants and student business manager, librarian, and equipment manager. The Voice of the Michigan Band is Carl Grapentine, now in his eleventh season.

Marching Band Staff

Paul Boylan, Dean, School of Music
H. Robert Reynolds, Director of Bands

The Stadium Story

CAPACITY: 101,701 – largest college-owned structure of its kind designed solely for football – closer to the playing field with no running track – no posts or other obstructions. Ninety rows.

COMPLETION: 1927 – at a cost in excess of $950,000 to seat 72,000 spectators. Capacity raised to 84,401 by addition of temporary wooden bleachers until 1949 when permanent steel stands replaced the wooden bleachers, increasing the capacity to 97,239. Seating capacity then raised to 101,001 in 1956 and 101,701 in 1973.

History of Scoring

Before 1883 there were no numerical values attached to touchdowns, goals, ect. In determining the winner, such values as four touchdowns equaling one field goal and one touchdown equaling two safeties were established. Walter Camp established the first numerical values which were changed over the years to better represent their importance and difficulty in achieving.

Coaches Honor Crisler

Fritz Crisler, former Michigan coach and athletic director, has been named the recipient of the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award by the American College Coaches Association. Crisler, a life member of the rules committee, was recognized for his contributions to college football.

Crisler was an All-American end at Chicago for the legendary Stagg. He coached Michigan football from 1938 through the national championship season of 1947 when he was named Coach of the Year. He retired as athletic director in 1968.

Michigan Football Awards

Each year, three special awards are given to players on the Michigan football team. The awards are the John F. Maulbetsch Award, the Meyer Morton Award, and the Frederick C. Matthaei Scholarship Award.

Maulbetsch Award

The John F. Maulbetsch Award is given to the freshman football candidate after spring practice on the basis of desire, character, capacity for leadership and future success both on and off the gridiron. It was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1954 in honor of the late John F. Maulbetsch, All-American halfback on the 1914 team.

Meyer Morton Award

The Meyer Morton Award is given to the football player who shows greatest development and most promise as a result of the annual spring practice. The award is given in honor of the late Meyer Morton, noted Big Ten official.

Matthaei Award

The Frederick C. Matthaei Award is given to the junior-to-be gridder who has displayed leadership, drive, and achievement on the athletic field and in the classroom. The award was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1968.
